Mary Sfingi Joins Idaho First Bank as VP, Private Banker

Ketchum, Idaho – November 14, 2022, Idaho First Bank (the “Bank”) (OTC: IDFB) announced today that Mary Sfingi has joined the team as Vice President, Private Banker.

As VP, Private Banker, Mary will be responsible for establishing and maintaining relationships with high-net-worth individuals, ensuring that proposed solutions meet their unique needs, goals, and objectives. Along with her private banking duties, Mary will also be responsible for growing consumer lending and deposits throughout the Bank.

“I’m looking forward to working with community bankers to support the needs of our high net worth clients with a holistic approach to their unique goals and objectives,” stated Mary.

Mary brings with her over 20 years of experience in lending, banking, and serving the Sun Valley market. Her responsibilities will begin at the Ketchum location and eventually migrate to being part of the Boise office after six to eight months, at which time, Mary will provide private banking and lending services to support both the Boise and Ketchum regions.

“Our People First focus starts with talented team members, which is why we are excited to have Mary join the team and help us escalate our private banking services,” says Todd Cooper, CEO of Idaho First Bank.

Born and raised outside of Boston, Massachusetts, Mary attended college at the University of Southern California where she obtained a Bachelor of Science, and relocated to Sun Valley in 2002. Outside of work, you can find Mary enjoying camping, gardening, and spending time with her husband and two daughters.
