Idaho First Bank Announces Opening Of Full-Service Branch in Nampa

Nampa, Idaho – November 16, 2020 Idaho First Bank (the “Bank”) (OTC: IDFB) is pleased to announce the opening of a new full-service branch located in Nampa, Idaho. The Nampa location serves as the sixth full-service branch of Idaho First Bank, which celebrated its 15th anniversary in October.

Originally opened as a Loan Production Office (LPO) in April 2020, this new location will provide full service in-branch banking including checking and savings accounts, and lending from mortgages, business expansion and commercial construction.

“We are excited to expand into a full-service banking branch to meet the continuing growth needs that the Nampa community is experiencing,” stated Greg Lovell, CEO of Idaho First Bank.

“I feel personally invested in this community, so when the opportunity came along to bring our team to this new location, we were completely on board to provide full service banking to our customers. We understand the market and are happy to serve the industries and people that make Nampa so special,” said Chris Batt, Senior Vice President and Area Market Leader of Idaho First Bank.

The Nampa branch is located at 343 Caldwell Blvd. Nampa, ID 83651 and is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m and includes and drive-thru.
